The application process is simple, and is broken into two very important steps:

STEP 1 – OFFICIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

STEP 2 – OFFICIAL VFS ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

Part One: Creative Submission — Video Audition

When prompted in your account, upload:

- B. A one-minute portion of a contemporary scene. You should be on camera and the reader off camera.
- C. A maximum of two minutes answering the following questions on camera:
 - Why did you choose these audition pieces?
 - How long have you wanted to act and who inspired you to pursue an acting career?
 - What are your strengths and weaknesses as an actor?

Note: Submissions will remain the sole property of the applicant. VFS will not share any materials submitted without permission.

Part Two: Written Personal Submissions

- A. In 100 words or less, tell us why you want to be an actor and what your dream role would be.
- B. In 100 words or less, tell us about a significant struggle or hardship you have had to overcome in your life, or a significant obstacle standing in the way of your creative education.

- C. Vancouver is considered one of the best cities in the world to live and learn, but it's also an expensive city compared to many others. We inform every applicant that it can cost you at least $30K a year for basic food, travel and accommodations. This scholarship will only cover your school tuition costs. Tell us how you plan to support yourself financially for 12 months in Vancouver?

STEP 2 — OFFICIAL VFS ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

There is a standard C$75 application processing fee for this section and it can take up to 30 minutes to complete. You can review it directly here: Online Application

The full application process will require applicants to provide standard contact details and background information for review and consideration by Casting Workbook and VFS.

Upon successful completion, applicants will receive a confirmation notification email.

Winners will be notified directly by Vancouver Film School and Casting Workbook in December 2019 and will be announced publicly shortly thereafter.
