

castingworkbook

VANCOUVER FILM SCHOOL

Casting Workbook Scholarship

2019 Scholarship Guidelines

SCHOLARSHIP DETAILS

- In partnership with Casting Workbook, VFS will be awarding one full-tuition scholarship to a qualified applicant for the 12-month Acting for Film & Television program, as well as one full-tuition scholarship to one applicant for the four-month Acting Essentials program. Additionally, VFS and Casting Workbook will award up to $250,000 in partial scholarships to runner-up applicants.
- Scholarship opens October 28, 2019, and closes on December 1, 2019, at 12:01 a.m. PDT.
- Scholarship is open to student applicants who are 17 years of age or older at the time of application.
- Scholarship is open to applicants legally allowed to study in Canada and the United States at the time of application. (Proof of eligibility may be required).
- The selection committee, chaired by Casting Workbook CEO Susan Fox, will personally select and announce the shortlist finalists and subsequent winners of the 2020 scholarships. Applicants will need to be enrolled at VFS for the 2020 school year.
- All applicants must apply to enroll at VFS through the standard admissions process online, and then must submit their creative audition submission through Casting Workbook.

Note: This scholarship program cannot be combined with any other current VFS scholarship or financial support offer.

ACTING FOR FILM & TELEVISION PROGRAM

Vancouver Film School's acclaimed one-year Acting program not only gives you in-depth training in camera skills, audition techniques, movement, voice, improvisation, and motion capture, but also what it takes to make it in the film and television industry.

ACTING ESSENTIALS PROGRAM

The four-month Acting Essentials program at VFS lets you dive into the skills necessary to build the foundation for an acting career: on-camera and audition techniques, voice, movement, and script analysis. No previous acting experience required.